George,

We wanted to let you know how much we have enjoyed our new office building. Everyone was great to work with. If we had to do it over again we would hardly change a thing!

We appreciate you working closely with our architect Tim Cooper. This allowed us to reduce our construction cost and improve the final product. The time and effort that was put in by the project manager, Sean Stem, keep thing on track.

A nice finishing touch was the binder with all the building information (i.e., paint colors, HVAC, electric, ect). This has really come in handy for general maintenance.

Overall we are very happy with our building and glad that we have done business with you and your company.

Thanks again,
